ORDER

BUMB, Chief District Judge

THIS MATTER having come before the Court sua sponte in light of: (1) Defendants' and the Siegel Plaintiffs' appeals of this Court's order granting-in-part, and denying-in-part, Plaintiffs' motions for a preliminary injunction, (2) Defendants' motion for a stay of that order in the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and (3) a Third Circuit panel's summary order granting-in-part, and denying-in-part, Defendants' motion for a stay,

IT IS on this 22nd day of June 2023, hereby

ORDERED that this Court will administratively terminate these actions (Civil Nos. 22-7464 and 22-7463) pending the ultimate resolution of the parties' appeals even though this Court's preliminary injunction decision left several matters unresolved pending discovery and additional briefing on, among other things, Chapter 131's new fees, Chapter 131's handgun ban at airports, transportation hubs, and the other sensitive place designations discussed in the Court's Opinion; and it is

FURTHER ORDERED that if any party opposes this Court's decision to administratively terminate these actions, that party must submit a letter to the Court within five days of this Order explaining why this Court should not administratively terminate these actions pending the outcome of the appeals; and it is FURTHER ORDERED that following the final resolution of the parties' appeals, any party may move to reopen these matters by filing a letter with the Court requesting the matters be reopened so that discovery can proceed.
